SILENT OBSERVER provides area residents with a safe and anonymous way of reporting crime.

The Silent Observer Program

Since 1972, Silent Observer Has Played An Integral Part in Keeping Kent County Safe By Giving Our Citizens an Anonymous Way to Stop, Solve & Prevent Crime

Since inception, tips to Silent Observer have resulted in solving thousands of crimes and recovering over $6.4 Million in cash, property and drugs.

Current Silent Observer Initiatives Include:

- Love Does Not Hit – This is in recognition of Domestic Violence Awareness Month with the goal of bringing wanted abusers to justice.
- Caught in the Act – Assisting police by asking the public to help identify individuals captured on surveillance photos who have committed a crime.
- Campus Silent Observer – Our campus program exists to assist in making our schools free from bullying, drugs, violence, weapons and gang activity.
- You Know Who Killed Me – We encourage anyone with information on these senseless homicides to share what they know with Silent Observer to bring the killers to justice.
- Project Night Lights – Showing the children at Helen DeVos Children's Hospital that Silent Observer and our law enforcement partners and the community are standing beside them as they fight the battle of their lives.
